

Ye Olde Man and Scythe

Bolton, Greater Manchester

8th February 2008

Report by Karmen Waldron

© Paranormal Tours Limited

Investigators: Team 1: Laura Powell, Darren Peacock, Cheryl Teach, Kevin Hunt and Clare Smith Team 2: Simone Stafford, Wendy Stafford, Mike Atkin, Sarah Smith Team 3: Rigby, Keren Rigby, Valerie Borrill, David Borrill, Sarah Lloyd and Angie Lloyd

Specialists: Paul Hunt (Clairvoyant Medium), Karmen Waldron and Paul Ashworh. (Paranormal Tours Investigators)

This report is a compilation of the Ghost Walk and the group vigils conducted throughout the night.

Large Bar Area

Investigator	Activity
Paul Hunt	Felt his ego increasing and was holding back angry and nasty thoughts. Felt this was linked to mafia connections.
Paul Hunt	Felt that the room would have been used as a board room or meeting room. It was a privilege to be allowed to enter this room.
Paul Hunt	Linked with a man who he has come in to contact before. This time he is happy to admit to something which he did in his past. He is proud and happy to admit that he committed a murder. He is proud of the trauma and pain that he caused. Also felt that this man went behind the backs of his colleagues to get more power. This man kept the jewellery of his victims and some of these items remain on the premises.
Paul Hunt	Felt that he wanted to 'sush' people as this was a quiet room
Paul Hunt	Also aware of female energy who is trying to find peace. Paul felt as though she was flung across the room prior to being murdered by being beaten to death. She does not want to move on.
Team One/Laura	Laura could visualise a yellow ribbon, tied back holding brunette hair.
Team One	The team felt cold and fearful as though they were looking for something
Team Two	The team connected (particularly Mike) with a lady who was in her late 20's a widow with no children. She was linked to this room by her late husband.
Team Two	The glass did not move when trying glass divination but Simone felt that the glass wanted to twist.
Team Two	The team tried table tipping with no results, the team did however feel vulnerable, as though there were being watched.
Team Three	No activity reported.

Front Bar

Investigator	Activity
Paul Hunt	Was aware of the chair in this area. It is left there for a gentleman who was around the bar, although he did not have a direct link with that man. Paul felt that this man would have links with behind the bar i.e. he may have worked there and he certainly knew the ins and outs of the building.
Paul Hunt	Picked up on the energy of a grumpy, arty type of man. He could feel him drawing closer. His face was itching so he may have had a beard of a moustache.
Paul Hunt	Linked with feelings of getting hotter and the feeling that he will die from his injuries. He felt wounds all over his body and could smell fire and sense the fear.
Paul Hunt	Was shown being taken back in time – he could see faces turning black and blue and generally disfigured.

Cellar

Investigator	Activity
Paul Hunt	Connected with a young lady. He sensed that this lady had been trapped and died in the cellar. She is happy to draw close to people and let them know that she is there.
Team One	Two team members picked up on the name Sarah in the far cellar room. Using the crystal they connected with her. Her responses were weak but distinct. She was 25 years old and died here.
Team One/Darren	Darren felt that he had been touched
Team One/Laura	Noticed a black shadow move across Darren as he mentioned he felt that he had been touched.
Team One/ Karmen/Laura	Laura felt that the energy called Sarah had lived in the cellar and was very happy and at home there. Karmen though that she had been imprisoned there against her will.

Team Two	No activity experienced.
Team Three	Using the dowsing rods and crystal connected with a female energy with 3 children who was grounded in the cellar. She particularly disliked gentlemen.
Team Three	Saw light anomalies at the entrance to the Cellar.

Courtyard

Investigator	Activity
Paul Hunt	Felt that there had been a different building here
Paul Hunt	Has connected on a previous occasion with a figure outside. The figure is a shape shifter and can disguise himself as other things to draw closer to people. He is not an energy to link in with often as he will drive positive energies out of you.
Paul Hunt	Linked with sensations of being hung/hanging sensations that ran all the way from the courtyard in to the bar area.
Paul Hunt	Felt that animals would have been present in the courtyard, not recently but in the not too distant past.
Paul Hunt	Linked with name Annabelle or Anna Bell. She may have worked here as a maid.
Paul Hunt	Connected with the energy of a gentleman saying "I'm telling you nothing". Felt that this was an energy that had been pushed over here from the other side of the street. Paul felt that the man was linked with sausages and swine, whose name was possibly Charles. (Confirmed there was a butcher across the road)
Paul Hunt	Felt the butcher had a small grey dog and was not an honest butcher. He would pass some meats off for others to profit.
Paul Hunt	Felt the property next door had links with the mayor.

Small Front Bar

Investigator	Activity
Paul Hunt	Felt that this would have been a games room with cards played and mats in certain places on the floor.
Paul Hunt	Could hear cards being shuffled
Paul Hunt	Picked up on residual energy of 3 men sitting at the same table ant the same time each week. They were great friends and all passed within a short time of each other
Paul Hunt	Connected with a female energy . She was not a negative energy and had a strong family orientation.

Shop

Investigator	Activity
Paul Hunt	Connected with a shoe shiner. He was a male presence and made himself known most frequently on the stairs.
Paul Hunt	Linked with a soldier on the top floor and could hear marching in the hallway
Team One	Connected with a little boy through calling out and asking for knocks and bangs. These were surprisingly responsive.
Team One	Initially the little boy wanted to communicate through Cheryl but seemed to move to Laura and Claire as they are both mothers. The little boy wanted to pull Cheryl's hair.
Team Two	Male team member felt as though he had been patted on the back.
Team Two	No movement on the planchette but two members of the team felt colder than the others, particularl with breezes over and under their hands while it was on the planchette. No explanation for this was found.
Team Two	One team member was 5 degrees cooler than they others.
Team Three	Saw a number of light anomalies on the ceiling.
Team Three	Felt cold draughts, although no explanation was found. Particularly legs were cold and some team members reported feelings of being patted on the legs.
Team Three	Connected with a male energy called James who was humorous when coming through and Jennie who was throwing marbles against the wall